

DEFIANCE

BURLINGTON, VT — The Flynn is proud to host _____, a timely community event that features an in-depth discussion about urgent public safety issues and the role of policing. This event is held on the Main Stage on _____. For _____, all of whom were members of President Obama’s Task Force on 21st Century Policing, illustrate key recommendations and ways in which communities across the country can continue to engage organizations, municipalities, and citizens in the co-production of public safety.

DEI FACT

public think about their relationships with legal authorities such as police, prosecutors, and judges.

is the managing partner of 21CP Solutions and a subject matter expert on policing and public safety. He is also the director of the Police Benevolent and Protective Association and the Police Benevolent Labor Committee in Illinois. Mr. Smoot serves on teams monitoring federal consent decrees, including the police departments in Baltimore and Cleveland. He consults internationally on issues related to public employment labor law, pension and benefits law, Section 1983 civil rights litigation, body-worn cameras, use of force, supervision, officer safety and wellness, recruiting, retention, and hiring. He has served on the Advisory Committee for the National Law Enforcement Officers' Rights Center in Washington, D.C. since 1996.

Collaborating Public Safety moderator is an assistant director at the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services, a grant-making component of the U.S. Department of Justice. She provides strategic leadership and oversight for public-private partnerships, the production of knowledge resources and engagement forums, and the multimillion dollar portfolio of classroom and online training for law enforcement officers. In her 17 years with the COPS Office she has led efforts to create new grant programs (c) led efforts to create new grahe